Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1, 11-13, and 17-21, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chung et al (P.N. 2005/0078947) in view of Bae et al (P.N. 7,356,248) as set forth in the previous Office Action mailed out on 9/14/10.

4. Claims 2-10, and 14-16, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 12/14/10 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding the Applicant in that the proposed combination of Chung et al and Bae et al indicated above being improper because it fails to disclose the claimed feature of performing random search for a subtitle on the DVD, Examiner disagrees. It is noted that, contrary to Applicant's argument, the cited reference of Bae et al does disclose the capability of performing random search for a subtitle on a recording medium, such as the disk recording medium shown in Bae et al's Figure 4, component 40, and claim 1, lines 6-10. Therefore, as indicated in the previous Office Action mailed out on 9/14/10, when the Chung et al's apparatus is modified in a manner to incorporate such a capability of performing random search of a subtitle on the DVD recording medium provided thereof in view of the random search of a subtitle on the disk recording medium as clearly described by Bae et al's apparatus, such a claimed feature argued by Applicant would be present in said proposed combination of Chung et al and Bae et al.

Moreover, with regard to claims 12 and 17, Applicant's attention is directed to the fact that these claims as written do not require that the random search for the subtitle be performed on the DVD as argued by Applicant.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to ROBERT CHEVALIER whose telephone number is (571)272-7374. The examiner can normally be reached on MM-F (9:00-6:30), second Monday off.
